IV. CLASS ALLEGATIONS

26. Plaintiffs Asif Ali and Kahir Ali ("Plaintiffs") file this case as an "opt-in" collective action, as is specifically allowed by 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

27. The class that Plaintiffs seek to represent may be described as follows:

All current and former non-exempt hourly workers / hourly laborers / store clerks who were employed by Defendants during the three-year period preceding the filing of this complaint.

28. Plaintiffs seek to represent only those Members of the Class who, after appropriate notice of their ability to opt into this action, have given consent in writing to be represented by Plaintiff's counsel as required by 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

29. Persons that choose to opt-in will be listed on subsequent pleadings and copies of their written consents to sue will be filed with the Court.

30. Plaintiffs contend that this action is appropriate for collective action status because each named Defendant herein has acted in the same manner with regard to all Members of the Class.

V. FACTS

31. At all times relevant to this action, Defendants have been subject to the requirements of the FLSA.

32. For purposes of this action, the “relevant period” is defined as such period commencing on the date that is three years prior to the filing of this action, and continuing thereafter.

33. Plaintiffs are siblings, and are both nephews of Defendants Tajdin Muhammad Ali and Shoukat Mohammad Ali. Plaintiffs worked for the Defendants without pay for the entire period of their employment. Defendants desired to pay Plaintiffs with cash, whereas Plaintiffs sought to be compensated with proper paychecks with tax withholdings. For the approximate six-month period Plaintiff Kahir Ali worked for Defendants, and similarly, for the nine-month period Plaintiff Asif Ali worked for Defendants, the parties continued to discuss the issue of form of payment, and Plaintiffs never anticipated that they would not be paid. As such, Plaintiffs continued for work for their uncles for a period of time without pay, believing that they would be eventually be paid. Defendants, however, now refuse to pay, even with cash, the straight-time and overtime wages due Plaintiffs. During the time of their employment, Plaintiffs’ father supported Plaintiffs financially.

34. Defendants employed Plaintiff Asif Ali from August 12, 2008 to May 1, 2009, at one of Defendants’ gas stations / convenience stores doing business as Raceway #6764 located at 2219 Highway 90, Crosby, Texas 77532.

35. Plaintiff Asif Ali’s agreed rate of pay was $10.00 per hour.

36. During his employment, Plaintiff Asif Ali worked for Defendants as an hourly worker / hourly laborer / store clerk (“clerk”).

37. Each week during his period of employment, Plaintiff Asif Ali worked the day shift from 6:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m., seven days a week.

38. Defendants employed Plaintiff Kahir Ali from August 20, 2008 to February 23, 2009, at one of Defendants' gas stations / convenience stores doing business as Raceway #6764 located at 2219 Highway 90, Crosby, Texas 77532.

39. Plaintiff Kahir Ali's agreed rate of pay was $10.00 per hour.

40. During his employment, Plaintiff Kahir Ali worked for Defendants as an hourly worker / hourly laborer / store clerk ("clerk").

41. Each week during his period of employment, Plaintiff Kahir Ali worked the evening shift from 1:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m., seven days a week.

42. As clerks, Plaintiffs have performed, during a significant period of most days, what was or is otherwise work performed by "hourly" or non-exempt employees because the job required it and Defendants' management demanded it.

43. During all or part of the past three years, while working for the Defendants as clerks, Plaintiffs have been required to work overtime hours in excess of 40 hours during each and every seven-day workweek.

44. During these hours worked, Plaintiffs have performed the function of their job, which included the performance of duties typically performed by "hourly" paid non-exempt employees because the job required it and Defendants' management demanded it.

45. Defendants employ other hourly workers at their multiple Shell, Chevron, Conoco, Citgo and other branded and un-branded gasoline stations and convenience stores.

46. During at least the past three years, all of these hourly workers at all business locations owned and/or operated by the Defendants were routinely required to work in excess of 40 hours per week to perform the function of their job which included the performance of duties otherwise typically performed by "hourly" paid non-exempt employees because the job required it and Defendants' management demanded it.

47. Defendants required Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated to perform all necessary work to include the performance of those duties otherwise typically performed by "hourly" employees which routinely required Plaintiffs and other similarly situated employees to work "overtime" hours as defined by 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq., for which they were not paid.

VI.
FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Unpaid overtime compensation under the FLSA)

48. Each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs is re-alleged as if fully rewritten herein.

49. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated are considered non-exempt employees.

50. Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated are entitled to receive overtime pay for all hours they have worked in excess of 40 during each seven-day workweek.

51. During Plaintiffs' employment, each routinely worked more than 40 hours a week.

52. Defendants did not pay Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated, their earned overtime pay for those hours they worked in excess of 40 per week.

53. Defendants have violated 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. by failing to pay Plaintiffs and all other similarly situated employees "overtime" pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

54. Defendants have not made a good faith effort to comply with the FLSA, and have thus violated the requirements of the federal statute.

55. Defendants have failed to maintain accurate, contemporaneous, and complete employee records, including the number of hours worked per workweek, by Plaintiffs and by all other similarly situated employees.

56. Each Defendant's conduct was willful under 29 U.S.C. § 255(a).

57. No exemption excused the Defendants from paying Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated, overtime pay for hours worked over forty per week.

58. Rather, Defendants knowingly, willfully, or with reckless disregard carried out their illegal pattern and practice of not paying overtime compensation due to Plaintiffs and to all others similarly situated.

59. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated seek an amount of back pay equal to the unpaid overtime compensation from the date they commenced employment for the Defendants until the date of trial, or until the last day of their employment, if earlier.

60. Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated further seek an additional equal amount as liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorney's fees and costs as provided for by 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), along with post-judgment interest at the highest rate allowed by law.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Plaintiffs' individual claims for unpaid wages in violation of the Texas Labor Code, Chapter 61)

61. Each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs is re-alleged as if fully rewritten herein.

62. Even though Plaintiffs were promised to be paid $10.00 per hour, neither received any compensation for all of the months they worked for Defendants.

63. By withholding Plaintiffs' wages earned during their respective periods of employment, Defendants have violated Texas Labor Code, Chapter 61, et seq, which specifically requires the employer to pay its employees all of their wages earned.

64. Plaintiffs therefore sue for unpaid wages and all additional damages allowed under the Texas Labor Code, Chapter 61, et seq.

VII.
COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

65. Each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs is re-alleged as if fully rewritten herein.

66. Other employees have been victimized by Defendants' pattern, practice, and policy that is in violation of the FLSA.

67. Other, similarly situated employees are being denied their lawful wages.

68. Accordingly, each Defendant's pattern and practice of failing to pay the employees' overtime pay (at time and one-half) as required by the FLSA results from Defendants' general application of policies and practices, and does not depend on the personal circumstances of the Members of the Class.

69. Thus, each Plaintiff's experience is typical of the experience of the Members of the Class.

70. The specific job titles or job requirements of the various Members of the Class do not prevent collective treatment.

71. All employees, regardless of their job requirements or rates of pay, who are denied overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of 40 per week, are similarly situated, and although the issue of damages may be individual in character, there is no detraction from the common nucleus of liability facts.

72. All current and former persons employed by Defendants who at any time during the three years prior to the date of filing of this action to the date of judgment who were denied overtime pay for hours worked in excess of forty (40) in any given workweek are properly included as Members of the Class.

VIII.
ATTORNEY FEES

73. Each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs is re-alleged as if fully rewritten herein.

74. Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated, are entitled to recover attorney's fees and costs for bringing this action pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.

IX.
JURY DEMAND

75. Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated, make formal demand for a trial by jury.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiffs Asif Ali and Kahir Ali, and all others similarly situated respectfully request that upon final hearing, the Court grant Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated, relief as follows:

- a. Declare that Defendants have violated the Fair Labor Standards Act, specifically 29 U.S.C. § 207, by failing to pay Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated, overtime pay at one and one half times their regular hourly rate for all hours in excess of 40 worked during each seven-day work period.
- b. Enjoin Defendants from failing to pay Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated, at one and one half times their regular hourly rates for all hours in excess of 40 worked in each seven-day work period.
- c. Order Defendants to pay Plaintiffs, and all others similarly situated, the difference between what they should have received for overtime hours worked during the relevant period and what they were actually paid, together with an equal amount as liquidated damages.

- d. Order Defendants to pay Plaintiffs' unpaid wages and all additional damages allowed under the Texas Labor Code, Chapter 61, et seq.
- e. Order Defendants to pay Plaintiffs' and all others similarly situated employees' reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).
- f. Order Defendants to pay post-judgment interest at the highest lawful rate for all amounts, including attorney fees, awarded against the Defendants.
- g. Order all further relief, whether legal, equitable or injunctive, as may be necessitated to effectuate full relief to Plaintiffs and to all other similarly situated employees of Defendants.

Respectfully submitted,
